

Don't Tell the Bride

Real Life, 9.00pm, BBC3

Hollie and James have just bought their first home and can't afford the extravagant wedding that Hollie dreams about. So, with the help of £12,000 from the BBC, they agree to separate for three weeks while James makes every decision about their big day. The colour theme is orange and the dress is gold – not usually a winning combination. Let's hope Hollie is impressed! ★★★ JT

TODAY'S CHOICES

Don't Tell the Bride 9.00pm BBC3
 This week's poor sap who has to organise his fiancée's dream wedding all by himself is James from Doncaster. He gets off to a bad start by choosing a perfectly good dress that's the opposite of what Hollie wants. Surely he won't host the reception in a nightclub? JS

Wheatley

HOLLIE and James Sandford, both 26, of Wheatley, starred BBC3 show 'Don't Tell the Bride' - a show that hands all the responsibility over to the groom, from the venue and decorations to the all important dress.

Hollie, who was initially apprehensive about the switch, said: "It was everything I expected and more it was really amazing and I was so proud of him, I think it meant more that he'd picked everything.

"Everything was different to what I would have chosen myself but when I saw it all together it was perfect.

The couple married at St Peter's Church on Chequer Road.

Notts hotel on TV programme

A TV series about secret weddings will feature a Notts hotel tonight.

Don't Tell the Bride will feature Ye Olde Bell Hotel and Restaurant in Retford.

The programme will be broadcast on BBC 3 at 9pm and 11.45pm tonight.
